The traditional YPAC party took place in the EXklusiv Club in Lana. Laughs, dances and drinks instead of discussion and politics. Well earned after days hard work

YPAC 2020: SEE YOU IN ROSENHEIM!

The productive week of this year's YPAC, full of new experiences, friendships and enthusiasm is coming to an end ... As it is so hard to say goodbye, we should say: "See you soon!" instead. The next YPAC will take place in 2020 in the Bavarian Rosenheim, a city located next to river Inn. Sadly, YPAC is held in March, so we will not be able to take part in Rosenheim's famous Herbstfest. But we are still looking forward to discussing the new topics, which will traditionally remain a secret for now. There is no doubt, 2020 will be just as fruitful and impressive as 2019!

Interview with David Augscheller

David Augscheller is one of the organisation group. He is a teacher at the FOS and his son is also involved in YPAC as a part of the Press-Group.

What was the difficulties thing to organise?

David: The party was unexpectedly the hardest thing to organise, because it wasn't easy to find a location. We asked so many club's and all of them said "yes" but before a view days, we had to change the location.

When you started to organise the YPAC 2019?

David: We had known since a view year that we must make the YPAC 2019. The most work we had in this school year and I would say that's also the time when we really started with the organisation.

Do you had fun, during the organisation of the YPAC?

David: Of course, I had, because we are a very good team and we all together had a lot of funny moments during the organisation. To organise such an event needs a bit of fun and looseness.

Did you had more to organise than you thought?

David: No. There wasn't something we didn't expected, because with this kind of event you may know what you have to organise from the past events. But we had a lot of work and enough to do without some unexpected things.

Trautmannsdorf

"Bless you!" - We hope you are not allergic to pollen ...

Our last hours together are going to be spent in the colourful gardens of Merano's castle Trauttmansdorf, which was back in the days a holiday residence of empress Sissi. The origins of this architectural centerpiece of the gardens, go all the way back to the Middle Ages. Since its first documentation in 1300 as Neuberg Castle, it has been renovated for a few times, worn a title of Tyrol's earliest example of a neo-Gothic castle and got its final look between 2000 and 2003. Inside the castle we can find The Touriseum, South Tyrol's Province Museum of Tourism, Artistic spots, Glass house with Terrarium of exotic animals ... We can also get astonished by the incredible views or enjoy some events as musical evenings. Italy's most beautiful gardens, declared so in 2005, offer a vivid experience, who will, together with good company, be a colorful conclusion of our week!
